Reed delivers light wherever you need it.

Reed is a low-profile, LED linear lighting solution for overhead cabinets and shelves, delivering light on the desktop for focused task work.

- Features LED technology that provides energy efficiency and uses no mercury or toxic gas.
- With four times the life, LED lighting results in less money out of pocket.
- Offers an instant-on feature, with no flickering, hum, or warmup.
- Makes more efficient use of the light produced by directing the light to the worksurface.
- Can easily be mounted wherever light is needed most, with magnetic or screw mounting brackets.
- Low-profile, lightweight design.
