This benching application encourages easy communication among a project team or supports individual workers hoteling for the day.

- Open-end gable legs create a lightly scaled aesthetic.
- Open storage beneath the surface makes use of underutilized space and provides a layered surface for piling. 18" deep storage provides for more efficient use of space.
- Storage with cushion doubles as guest seating for quick conversations.
- Power module brings power to the surface to support multiple workstyles.
- Glass screens create separation without inhibiting conversation and collaboration.
